Dear Parents,

I can't believe I am saying this but we are making plans for Christmas! The term is certainly flying by! Our hope is to be able to have socially distanced Nativity performances, with a smaller audience than we would normally have. We will have to monitor the situation moving forward and revert to recording if there are concerns. We hope that other events will be able to go ahead for children in school as normal, we will keep you updated.

Special Awards this week:

Hedgehog Class

Joseph for working hard to write beautiful sentences

Badger Class

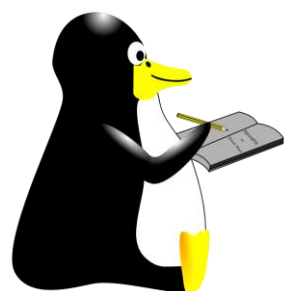

Oscar for producing imaginative and thoughtful writing in every english lesson this week

Fox Class

Fia for working super hard and making great progress.

Writer of the Week

Freddie C for his gruesome Beowulf writing!
