6th September 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome back! I hope you all had a fantastic summer and chance to make the most of the lovely weather. Sadly, autumn seems to have set in already!

It has been lovely to welcome our new children and staff to school this week. The children have all been really keen to make sure they settle in and helped them get used to our routine. Ducklings were really keen to get onto the playground with everyone else this morning so hopefully they will be happier saying goodbye and going off to play next week, which will be just as tough for parents!

All of the children seem to have settled really well into new classes. Teachers will be sending out class information over the next few weeks to let you know what they will be up to. Remember, if you have any questions or concerns please ask.

As we said before the holiday, we will be celebrating Roald Dahl Day on Friday 13th September. We would love to see everyone dressed as a character from one of his books. We will share some of the fun we have had with you at Parent's Assembly. We were excited to start our whole school shared story today, George's Marvellous Medicine. The children will be enjoying more of his stories in their classes.

Attendance was a bit of an issue this week with some holidays running over the start of term. Thankfully the class with the highest attendance was:

Ducklings with 100%. Fingers crossed for the other classes next week!

Swimming

Eagles will be our first class swimming this year. You should have received a permission form, please return it to school asap so everything is in place ready for Wednesday morning.

Vacancy

Sadly, Mrs Burrell our kitchen assistant from Edwards and Blake will be leaving later in the month. If you or anyone you know would be interested in applying for the role, please contact Edwards and Blake. Details attached.

Macmillan Coffee Morning

We will be supporting the village coffee morning again this year and will be having a Bake Sale on Friday 27th September. Any donations will be gratefully received!

We are all looking forward to an exciting year ahead, we will let you know of any dates we plan as soon as we can!

Best wishes,

Jennie Müller
